

INTRODUCE YOURSELF

Introducing yourself is much more than saying your name; it's a way to connect with someone new by exchanging words and often, physical contact. Introducing yourself to strangers can be tricky because what you say depends entirely on the context. You may introduce yourself differently depending on whether you are addressing an audience before you give a speech, meeting someone at a networking event, or just starting a conversation with a new person at a party. What is important is to introduce yourself in a way that is appropriate and makes people like and remember you.

TELL ME SOMETHING ABOUT YOURSELF:

Good morning/afternoon/evening....

Name: I am.....My name is.....I am....years old.

Place: I am from...

Qualification: I have completed diploma in....

I am graduate in...

I have recently done my...

My highest qualification is...

Skills and experience: I am quite good in...

I don't have any working experience. But I am seeking an opportunity to work.

My strengths are...

Hobbies: I am fond of...

I am good of...

I love...

If I mention about my hobbies....

Close: That's all about me sir/madam....

If you would like to know further details I would be glad to share it.

EXAMPLES:

One sentence Introductions:

Salutation: Name

- "Hello, my name is John."
- "Hi, how are you? I'm John."
- "My name's John. What's yours?"

Salutation: Name and Personal fact

- "Hi, I'm Anne and I am from Los Angeles, California."
- "Hey, my name's Jane, I enjoy playing basketball."

Multi-sentence Introductions:

Running into someone familiar

- "Hi, did you go to Kansas State? Wow, I went there too. I thought you looked familiar, my name is Emily."

Running into someone you do not know

- I love that book, it's my favorite. If you're thinking about it, you should definitely get it. My name is Jolie, by the way.